May 7, Mill Creek's Pollack Salute

Mill Creek Entertainment announced this past week that it's next Blu-ray "Director Spotlight" release will arrive on May 7. This takes the form of Director Spotlight: Sydney Pollack and features the double-bill of Castle Keep and Bobby Deerfield.

Sydney Pollack was the Best Director and Best Picture-winner (producer) for Out of Africa in 1986 and was also nominated Best Director for both Tootsie (1983) and They Shoot Horses, Don't They? (1970) ...

Severin Films Has Four 4Ks, May 28

Severin Films, with sales and distribution support provided by MVD Entertainment Group, will be crushing it with four new 4K Ultra HD/Blu-ray Combo Pack releases on May 28. You heard that right, four!!

So what do we have here? How about — it's a tough choice picking one to start with — we begin with writer/director Eddy Matalon's 1977 (1980, United States) horror entry, Cathy's Curse.

This Canadian production was bicycled (meaning: limited prints) across Canada

Warner's 4Ks For Ocean's Series

Warner Bros. Discovery Home Entertainment says: "Why do one when you can do all three!" That's exactly what just happened with the news this week that all three of the Danny Ocean heist capers will be available as newly-minted 4K Ultra HD editions on Apr. 30.

They are available individually or as a box set (priced pretty much as a buy two, get one free discount).

We know the films, no mystery here, so let's get to the bonus features for a trilogy of films that have grossed $526 million in their domestic theatrical runs.

Ocean's Eleven features two commentary options — one with director Steven Soderbergh and writer/producer Ted Griffin and the second with actors Brad Pitt, Matt Damon and Andy Garcia.

There are also five featurettes — "Are You In or Out? The Making of Ocean's Eleven," "Pros & Cons: Inside Ocean's Outfit," "The Style of Steal," "The Look of the Con" and "Original

Cleopatra's U.K. Subs On May 03

Cleopatra Entertainment, with sales and distribution support provided by MVD Entertainment Group, announced this past week that Friday, May 3 will be the street date for the DVD/CD Combo Pack release of The Last Will and Testament of U.K. Subs.

In late September of last year, Charlie Harper, Alvin Gibbs, Steve Staughan and Stefan Haublein — known to fans as the iconic punk rockers, U.K. Subs (who were literally there at the beginning of the punk rock scene in 1976) — checked in at the 100 Club in London and delivered a blowout set featuring two-dozen of their hardcore numbers.

Sony Pictures' Anyone But You, Mar. 12

Sony Pictures Home Entertainment has made a last minute announcement for the release of both DVD and Blu-ray editions of writer/director Will Gluck's wildly successful romantic comedy, Anyone But You.

Mar. 12 was already crowded with Aquaman and the Lost Kingdom, Wish, The Color Purple and Poor Things and then suddenly this delight — teaming Sydney Sweeney (Madame Web, Americana, etc.) with Glen Powell (Devotion, Top Gun: Maverick, Hidden Figures, etc.) — is dropped in at the last minute.

Let's hope that this doesn't become a pattern ... spread the wealth around with something each week, rather than all lumped together.

The ARR works out to 81 days and the domestic box office haul was a tasty $87.8 million.

Bonus features include outtakes, deleted scenes, a blooper reel and two featurettes — "He Said, She Said" and "Everyone Down Under."

VCI Entertainment's Bat Whispers, June 11

VCI Entertainment has gone to the vaults for a rare film gem that will be making its Blu-ray debut on June 11.

This is none other than director Roland West's 1930 (pre-code) film adaptation of the Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood 1920 stage play, "The Bat," which was retitled for the screen as The Bat Whispers, starring Una Merker and Chester Morris.

This was actually a remake of West's own 1926 silent version ... and genre fans will remember that Vincent Price and Agnes Moorehead delivered The Bat remake in 1959, which remains a classic to this day!

A DVD edition of The Bat Whispers will also be available on June 11.

Their fans were not disappointed as the 70-minute set included the likes of "Stranglehold," "Warhead," "Tomorrow's Girls," "Teenage" and "Party in Paris" (all hit singles from 1979 and 1980) ... plus from the group's "Brand New Age Album" the song with lyrics that scream "... Barbie was thin, white skin, Barbie's in bed, she's dead!" In this day and age what U.K. Subs concert that didn't feature "Barbie's Dead" would be complete!!

Bonus goodies include video sessions with the band members behind stage at the 100 Club.

TRAIL OF THE ROYAL MOUNTED

DVD Debut:
May 07, 2024

Pollack Continued he also received Best Picture nominations (as producer) for Tootsie, Michael Clayton (2008) and The Reader (2009).

Well before these cinematic hits, he teamed up with Burt Lancaster for back-to-back films in 1968 and 1969. The first of these was The Scalphunters, a proto-Western in that the action takes place prior to the Civil War and similar to Jeremiah Johnson in terms of period (Pollack would direct Jeremiah Johnson in 1972 — one of seven films starring Robert Redford).

In 1969, Pollack adapted author William Eastlake's 1965 novel, Castle Keep, which is loosely based on Eastlake's experiences in World War II (he would receive the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart for action at the Battle of the Bulge).

Here, Lancaster plays Major Abraham Falconer, who has been cutoff in the winter of 1944 and has just six men to defend a castle on Belgian/French border. It is an important location in that it is on a direct route (from the north) for the German's to make a move on Bastogne ... they hold out as best they can, delaying the enemy, but one by one they are killed (only one survives).

Teamed with Castle Keep is Pollack's 1977 film adaptation of writer Eric Maria Remarque's 1961 novel, "Heaven has No Favorites," which was retitled for the screen as Bobby Deerfield.

This racecar romantic/drama teams Al Pacino with Marthe Keller, who had just come off starring roles in Marathon Man and Black Sunday.

from July through November of 1977 and then dropped out of sight. It finally got domestic distribution three years later, but the film was trimmed by some three minutes.

A new 4K restoration of the recently discovered original 35mm camera negatives gives genre fans the choice on May 28 of enjoying the "director's cut" (91 minutes) or default to the theatrical release cut (88 minutes).

Bonus features include commentary by Brian Collins and Simon Barrett, a trio of featurettes — "Tricks And Treats," "Cathy's Daddy" and "Cathy & Mum" — and more.

Next comes director William Asher's 1981 genre entry, Butcher, Baker, Nightmare Maker, starring Jimmy McNichol who lives with the "mother" (Susan Tyrrell — Cry-Baby, Forbidden Zone) from hell, who guards some deeply disturbed "family" secrets (a deadly passion).

As with the Canadian release of Cathy's Curse, Asher's Butcher, Baker, Nightmare Maker had a limited number of prints and took from November of 1981 until March of 1982 to complete its domestic theatrical run. And yet, for all of that, here it is as a 4K Ultra HD release from Severin Films!!

Bonus features include three commentary options. The first with McNichol (Smokey Bites the Dust), while the second commentary option teams co-writers Steve Breimer and Alan Jay Glueckman, with moderation by Mondo Digital's Nathaniel Thompson, and the third is with co-producer Eugene Mazzola.

Other bonus goodies include video sessions with McNichol, Tyrrell, make-up artist Allan A. Apone and producer Steve Breimer and two featurettes — "Extreme Prejudice" and "Point and Shoot."

Rounding out the new 4K Ultra HD/Blu-ray Combo Pack arrivals on May 28 are Lucio Fulci's The Devil's Honey (4K Ultra HD/Blu-ray Combo Pack) and director Sergio Martino's The Great Alligator (4K Ultra HD/Blu-ray Combo Pack) ... both have English and Italian audio tracks.
